

Successful bid price of household energy storage project in Guernsey 2025

Why did Guernsey increase electricity prices?

The decision comes after Guernsey Electricity (GEL) applied to the government for an increase of 9.5% because its long-term fixed price agreements for the import of electricity are due to end. The STSB said the quarterly standing charges for households would rise from £68.25 to £86.75, the equivalent of about 95p per day.

How much would a low-usage household spend on electricity in Guernsey?

Using the analysis, a typical low-usage household in Guernsey would spend £637 a year on electricity from July. Depending on the region, in Britain they could expect to save between £7 and £123 a year - between 1% and 19% less than Guernsey.

What is the energy strategy for Guernsey?

The Electricity Strategy for Guernsey covers the period up to 2050. The Committee for the Environment & Infrastructure considered several different ways in which Guernsey could meet its future demand including solar, wind, tidal, additional interconnectors, energy storage and alternative fuels.

Is Guernsey a good place to buy electricity?

However, heavy electricity users are better off in Guernsey, with a high-usage household to spend on average £1,503 a year from July. The analysis showed British households could expect to spend between £42 and £244 more a year - up to 16% more.

Does Guernsey need a green economy?

It is essential that Guernsey can manage its own transition to a green economy effectively and so a strategic direction must be set, along with a market structure that supports this, and provide certainty to the energy industry. The Electricity Strategy was approved by the States of Deliberation in September 2023. What was proposed?

Does Guernsey Electricity need a 'accounting unbundling' exercise?

Guernsey Electricity will be required to undertake an 'Accounting Unbundling' exercise which involves separating the accounts associated with various activities undertaken within the business. This is needed to ensure transparency and fairness within the market.
